

201 West Green, Urbana, Illinois 61801
dogood@dogoodconsulting.org
www.dogoodconsulting.org
217-778-1687

do good GRANTWRITING TRAININGS!

Calling all non-profit employees, volunteers, and board members and business owners, too!

In partnership with Parkland College Business Development Center do good Consulting is pleased to offer three exciting GRANTWRITING training opportunities! These low-cost, high-impact sessions will help you identify grants for your organization or business, write winning proposals, and better understand the world of grantmaking.

If you are interested in learning more about writing great grants, learning to conduct efficient grant funding searches, and how the world of grants works, these sessions are for you. Attend a 2-hour workshop, an 8-week course, or all sessions listed below to really get you ready. All workshops are at the Parkland Business Development Center at 1315 N. Mattis, Champaign.

INTRO TO THE WORLD OF GRANTS

Tuesday, January 26 from 6-8PM

New to the world of grants? do good Consulting professional trainer, Elizabeth Simpson, will introduce you to the language of letters of inquiry, RFPs, needs statements, budgets, and more. This 2-hour workshop can be a stand alone class or a great introduction to the Grantwriting & Proposal Development course (below). Appropriate for non-profit and business sector attendees. Fee: $45. HURRY: The deadline to enroll in this workshop is Jan. 19. TO REGISTER: Call 217-351-2235 (M-F, 8AM-5PM). Use a credit card, or get invoiced. Use code WBT 747-960.

FIND A GRANT FOR YOUR NON-PROFIT

Tuesday, February 23 from 6-8PM

Looking for that perfect grant, but don't know where to start? This is the workshop for you! Spend 2 hours with do good's top grantwriter, Elizabeth Simpson, to learn about online grant databases and the key words to lead you to find that perfect grant opportunity. Appropriate for non-profit and business sector attendees. Fee: $45. Enrollment deadline: Feb. 19. TO REGISTER: Complete this form, print, sign, and mail-in or fax. Confirmation by mail in 7-10 business days. Or call 217-351-2235 (M-F, 8AM-5PM). Credit card accepted by phone, or get invoiced. Use code WBT 748-960.

GRANTWRITING & PROPOSAL DEVELOPMENT FOR NONPROFITS

Tuesdays, March 30-May 18 (6-8PM)

Discover the secrets of great grant development with do good Consulting's Elizabeth Simpson. Learn about the entire grant proposal process and the basics needed to turn a project idea into a proposal and into funding. Learn to find the right grant opportunity for your organization and programs, how to navigate a Request for Proposals (RFP), write a show-stopping needs statement, design a solid program and budget, and great reporting techniques to keep programs and ideas funded long-term. Course involves homework. Appropriate for non-profit and business sector attendees. Fee: $195. Registration deadline: March 23. No class Nov. 9. TO REGISTER: Apply for admission here, then register for ENG 701-960.

For more information, call Parkland College at 217-351-2235 or see <http://www2.parkland.edu/businesstraining/GrantWriting.htm>. To learn more about the grantwriting and other non-profit and business services do good Consulting offers, call 217-778-1687 or see www.dogoodconsulting.org.